The report is the result of a conference between Mayor A. U. G. Bryan and W. R. Devenish, president of the Canadian National, which was held Saturday morning under the aegis of the Canadian National.

The commissioners will be present at the meeting.

The commissioners will recommend that the city accept the report and that the city's obligation in this matter be included in the program of public improvements for 1929.

PRINCE WINS "RED" LEADER COOK RECENTS

Miners' Secretary Invites Prince to be Socialist—"Reds" Bitter

Canadian Press Cable

The Prince of Wales has been invited to the Socialist party. A. J. Cook, leader of the Socialists, told the miners' Federation yesterday that he had received an invitation from the Prince to attend the Miners House when he paid a visit to Edmonton next week to speak on behalf of the distressed mining districts.

"To me the Prince of Wales is no different from any other man," he said. "He is a man, whatever he is. If he has done something to offend me, I hope he will apologize, because whatever he does, I am glad to have him right there in life. I claim the right to think."

The Prince of Wales has shown himself to be a good man, a kind man, and I have always asked him to do what he can for the distressed miners."

SAD DAY IN BOZ

LONDON, April 22.—The Communist party is sending a violent protest to the Canadian government against the Minister of Finance's plan to cut down the miners' representation in the Senate.

When Cook spoke to the miners' delegation at the Miners House, when he paid a visit to Edmonton last week, he spoke on behalf of the distressed mining districts.

Cook is personally interested in the fate of the miners.

"The Prince of Wales has shown himself to be a good man, a kind man, and I have always asked him to do what he can for the distressed miners."

Convinced by Prince

The incident has evoked widespread interest and comment in view of the Prince's visit to Canada, and the Canadian Press cable says:

"The Prince has given us a clear indication of his views on the class struggle, and we expect him to continue to support the cause of the working-class."

Convinced by Prince

The question of miners' representation in the Senate has been referred to the Prince's agents, and deserves the story told by Prince Cook, who is personally interested.

Supressing Slave Trade

LONDON, April 22.—The British government has appointed Sir Edward Heath to lead an inquiry into the slave trade.

Heath, who was appointed to the post by the prime minister, will be asked to report on the slave trade within six months.

Press Opinions

The Observer, in an editorial, welcomed the Prince's visit to Canada, and said:

"The miners' representation in the Senate is a pictureless incident which the conventions of few countries would consider worthy of notice."

The Sunday Express says: "It would be good for the Prince to go to Canada to convert to Trotskyism, but he is no longer a communist, and he himself is not even a member of the party."

After detailed discussion with the prime minister, he turned to the question of social reform in the country.

The Prince of Wales has shown himself to be a good man, a kind man, and I have always asked him to do what he can for the distressed miners."

CHANGE BEAUTY PARLOR STATUS

To be Removed From Operation of Minimum Wage Act

Application has been made by the Retail Merchants Association that beauty parlors and schools of beauty culture be removed from the operation of the minimum wage act in order to keep this law for the benefit of the workers employed in the industry. The employers and employees were heard by the committee of the chamber of commerce of the civic block Monday.

A. A. Carpenter, a carpenter at Christensen James Kelcey representing the chamber, told the committee that the law did not apply to the employees.

Walter Haywood, curate of Oldham, said that the law did not apply to dental shooting and surgery. The other speaker, another dentist, said that there was not the same amount of work in dental shooting and surgery.

Haywood said that the dental shooting and surgery was not a new business, but one that had been around for a long time.

He was the only dentist in Oldham.

He was the only dentist in Oldham, and arrangements were made to have the employees against paying a minimum wage to girls who worked in the industry.

It was stated that this proposal was submitted to the provincial government.

No decision was reached by the board, but it was decided to hold a private meeting after the meeting when the master would be present.

BABY PRINCESS HAS BIRTHDAY

Commissioner Bryan Invited to National Anti-crime Conference to be Held Shortly in Montana

There is every probability that State Commissioner of Investigation, W. E. Bryan, will be invited to the national anti-crime conference which is scheduled to be held in the fall in Montana, where leading police officials of both Canadian and American provinces will meet to discuss the problems of law enforcement.

A growing tribute has just been paid to the work of the Canadian police force by the Northwest Association of Sheriffs and Police Chiefs, to the police organization of the province.

The commissioners will recommend that the Canadian police organization be invited to the national anti-crime conference, as it is the duty of the city's obligation in this matter be included in the program of public improvements for 1929.

U. S. Can Learn

In the United States can learn much from Canada," Commissioner May declared.

"I am sure that the United States will arrest and bring to justice all the criminals who commit crimes in the United States," he said. "There is no reason why they cannot do that and to get their Man."

As a result of that code the Canadian police force has been able to reduce its costs by 30 percent in running its department.

The Canadian officer has the right to arrest all persons suspected of committing crimes here, and a different system where the authority of the police force is limited to certain countries and they must depend upon the police force of other countries in other countries and states," he said.

Book The Best

"When Canada established her independence she took the best from the codes of America and Great Britain," Commissioner May said.

"All the Canadian police officer does is to try to restrain them in another manner or procedure from where they come."

The provincial officers in Canada have been able to reduce their expenses by 30 percent.

"The Association of Sheriffs and Police Chiefs, to the police organization of the province, has failed to give any trace of just cause for the reduction in costs," he said.

Commissioner Bryan Invited to National Anti-crime Conference to be Held Shortly in Montana

There is every probability that State Commissioner of Investigation, W. E. Bryan, will be invited to the national anti-crime conference which is scheduled to be held in the fall in Montana, where leading police officials of both Canadian and American provinces will meet to discuss the problems of law enforcement.

A growing tribute has just been paid to the work of the Canadian police force by the Northwest Association of Sheriffs and Police Chiefs, to the police organization of the province.

The commissioners will recommend that the Canadian police organization be invited to the national anti-crime conference, as it is the duty of the city's obligation in this matter be included in the program of public improvements for 1929.
